We are very pleased to be able to offer this study day once again in 2023.

The purpose of this workshop is to raise awareness and understanding of the increasing spiritual and cultural diversity that exists within our communities, which will enhance our ability to offer the most appropriate care.

Buddhist, Maori, Hindu, Muslim and Pacifica representatives will share their perspectives, illuminating how knowledge of their beliefs and traditions can enhance our palliative care approach for people in their communities.

This workshop is open to all those working in the health and pastoral care sector and will be presented by George Dempster – Arohanui Hospice Spiritual Care Coordinator.

Spaces are limited – to register please visit the Arohanui Hospice website at www.arohanuihospice.org.nz and complete a registration form.
